BOILING SPRINGS, N. C.

GLADYS BROOKS, Editor

R. W. ABRAMS, Business Manager

FOREWORD

We, the 1942 graduating class of Boiling Springs College, in order to establish a more lasting memory, to insure many pleasant laughs by providing for the refreshing of our memories with photos, snapshots, and scenes, to promote the spirit of our Alma Mater, and to secure the blessings of fond memories of our school life and school mates, do publish this Annual of Boiling Springs College.

DEDICATION

In return for what Mr. Horace Easom and his co-workers are doing for the "Greater Boiling Springs," we wish to extend our hearty thanks. We are sure that everyone who has had, or will have had, a part in this program, will never regret it, for when this campaign is over, the friends of this school will have every reason to be proud of everything it has accomplished, since it has been made possible only by them.

Therefore, it is to the numerous contributors to the "Greater Boiling Springs" campaign, that we wish to dedicate this annual, and we hope they will accept it as a sincere expression of our deepest gratitude for their cooperative spirit.

For the growing institution of Boiling Springs College, the leaders in the Expansion Campaign have mapped out this program. The dreams and aspirations of the people are now becoming a reality. The library building has already been completed and donated by Mr. Seaton A. Washburn, and the Memorial Building, now under construction, is expected to be ready for use by the beginning of next year. During the summer both dormitories will be renovated. Surely our "Greater Boiling Springs" is on its way.
